A Message from the Pastor

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

“And the Word became Flesh and lived among us.”

This is not about reflecting upon a "perfect family," but to ask ourselves how we might be blessed to reflect upon Joseph, Mary and Jesus, and ask ourselves what graces they could offer us. And, this allows us a bit more time to reflect upon the Christmas story, including the everyday reality that was part of their lives as family - the patience, give and take, the self-sacrifice and the love that was a part of their family human interaction together. That can include all the growing up years of Jesus' life, what their village was like and what ways they spoke with each other, as well as what difficulties they might have experienced.

We can imagine what Jesus learned from both Mary and Joseph that prepared him for his life as our Savior. Finally, we can imagine the death of Joseph and the life of Mary and Jesus after his death.

Let's remember, too, that Christmas is a "season" and not just a day. Since the days before Christmas were so busy for most of us, perhaps we can use these "Christmas days" to enter more deeply into the meaning of this whole season and thank God for His precious gift. Fr. Louie

SCS Building Project Updates

Nearly all roof trusses are in place at this time and most of the roof will be temporarily waterproofed within the next week or two. Once the temporary water proofing is on the roof and the remaining sheathing is installed on the walls, the building is essentially "blacked in" meaning that some work may begin on the interior. Over the next month, the permanent roof will be installed and exterior finishes will begin to show up. The project remains on track for completion near the end of the school year.

Stewardship Corner

Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

History has been harsh on Herod, and rightly so. He accomplished much but at a tragic cost to others. He ordered the death of his wife, Miriam, and several of his sons. He did not understand or accept the reason Jesus came into the world and he sent soldiers to search for the infant and kill him. Before we join in the condemnation of Herod we should examine our soul to determine how well we have fulfilled our responsibility to search for Jesus so we can imitate him. Have we, in our own way, failed to understand and accept the real reason Jesus came into the world? Paul offers us a way to find Jesus and make Him alive in our hearts: "Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another . . . as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. . . and let the peace of Christ control your hearts . . . And the word of Christ [will] dwell in you richly." Imagine a world in which everyone, including Herod and other powerful leaders, sought out and imitated Jesus.
